Nactis (Nactarome Group) reached an agreement to partner with Trablit

BONDOUFLE and MORANGIS France -- January 16th, 2023

Nactis Flavours (Nactarome Group) and Trablit-ISDA today announce they have reached an agreement to enter into a strategic partnership. Trablit and Nactarome (Sevarome) focus on the same segments in the sweet market and their closer collaboration will enable an ever-better service to customers of both companies. This increased collaboration will help strengthen Nactarome's position in the natural coffee extracts segment, while Trablit will benefit from a wider portfolio of products to be offered to its existing customers and much more global reach. The focus will continue to be taste solutions in key sweet and beverage end-markets. The envisioned set-up will result in the creation of a new coffee extract division which will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Nactis Flavours. Nactarome and Trablit management welcome the strategic partnership, as it allows to further develop new markets and increase the breadth of services to current and prospective customers of both companies.

The final transaction is subject to the fulfillment of parties' obligations and is expected to close in Q1 2023.

Statement of GM of Nactis Flavours:

"We are excited to welcome Trablit in our family. We are very confident that the acquisition will play a part in accelerating Nactis's ambitions through the vertical integration into key coffee extracts for our flavour creations. Our two companies share the same vision: combine French artisan know-how and industrial excellence to offer our customers products of the highest quality. Therefore, this transaction represents a major milestone for Nactis and opens the door to a new chapter of growth" said Nactis Flavours General Manager, Antoine Gambart.

Statement of CEO of Nactarome Group:

"I am very excited and extend a warm welcome to Trablit organization who will join Nactarome Group. Once the partnership is finalized, it will greatly benefit our customers and create a stronger and broader portfolio range for our key product lines, first and foremost in our customers in the sweet segment." said Nactarome Group (CEO), Luigi Del Monaco.

Statement of GM of Trablit-ISDA:

"We are enthusiastic and proud to become part of the Nactis family. We are convinced that our two companies share the same vision for the future of the flavour industry. Nactis Flavours and Trablit will use their respective French artisan know-how and industrial excellences to become a Leading group in Europe. Our close collaboration will further strengthen our expertise in flavours and our company value chain. We will continue to provide artisans worldwide with the highest quality coffee extracts as this is our legacy and inspiration since 1845." said Trablit-ISDA General Manager and shareholder, Ali Tayakout.
